

TRANSNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON BLACK GERMANY

REFRAMING HISTORY AND LIFE NARRATIVES

A collaboration between The Black German Heritage & Research Association and the University of Toronto to foster international engagement with the social and cultural history of Black Germans.

Innis Town Hall, University of Toronto
2 Sussex Ave, Toronto, Canada
May 23-25, 2018

Sheri Hagen

Auf den zweiten Blick

(At Second Glance, 2012, Germany, 92 min)

TIFF Bell Lightbox, 350 King Street West

May 23, 7:00 p.m.

Dr. Fatima El-Tayeb

Beyond the Black Paradigm? Afro-Diasporic Strategies in the Age of Neo-Nationalism

May 24, 3:30 p.m. Innis Town Hall

Oxana Chi & Dr. Layla Zami

I Step on Air

Dance-Music-Poetry Performance

Robert Gill Theatre, 214 College Street

(St. George Street entrance, 3rd floor)

May 24, 7:30 p.m.

Noah Sow

Visions and Challenges for Black German Studies 2.0

May 25, 3:30 p.m. Innis Town Hall

Registration & Program:

bghra.org/ut-2018

Courtesy of Oxana Chi & Layla Zami

Sponsoring Units:

Germanic Languages & Literatures, Cinema Studies Institute, Women and Gender Studies Institute
Centre for Transnational and Diaspora Studies, Centre for the United States, Centre for Comparative Literature

